

Stone Soup Leadership Institute's Story of the Week: Eleanor Roosevelt Week of March 7 - March 13, 2021

Sunday: Thrive Global: She Kept Her Promises

#SundayThoughts: In honor of #InternationalWomensDay this week's story on @AriannaHuff's @Thrive Global, shines the light on First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt's generous spirit and her resolve to keep her promises to all those who asked for her help. Mrs. Roosevelt became a trusted leader who knew how to bring out the best in people, and who fought tirelessly for fairness and justice for all humanity. @rooseveltinst

Friday: The Heavens Open

#FridayReads: Read the inspiring story of Marietta Primicias Goco, who rekindled the traditional Filipino value of Bayanihan: working together for the common good. As director of the first Presidential Commission to Fight Poverty in the Philippines, Mrs. Goco applied the principles of the United Nation's Universal Declaration of Human Rights principles designed by First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt to rebuild her country.

Celebration of Heroes with Walter Cronkite Martha's Vineyard Jainaba Burton Sundman

interest in world peace, human right. and issues of importance to women, are in the tradition of Eleanor Roosevelt and I hope, will inspire you always. In 1958, on the 10th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, my grandmother said, "Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places close to home - so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world. Yet they are the world the individual person; the neighborhood he lives in; the school or college he attends; the factory farm or office where he works, Such are the places where every man, woman and child seeks equal justice, equal opportunity, equal dignity without discrimination. Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere. Without concerted citizen action to uphold them close to home, we shall look in vain for progress in the larger
