Sunday Story

#DorothyStoneman is a powerful champion for young people. In 1978, she brought together unemployed teens, abandoned buildings & homeless people in East Harlem. “We rebuild the houses. We take empty buildings back from the drug dealers and eliminate crime.” #YouthBuild now has 275 programs helping 200,000 students reclaim their #education, gain job #skills & become leaders in their communities. ### Saturday Press

#YouthBuild will receive IRA funding to grow the U.S. Department of Labor's program through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. "Lots of folks deserve credit for what's good in the IRA..." said one staffer. "But the frontline communities and young people who are most affected both created the conditions [to pass the bill] and refused to give up during this process."
