

The Stone Soup Leadership Institute's
Story of the Week: Frank Carr
Week of January 15-21, 2023

Sunday: Story

Frank Carr responded to Dr. King's call to action by joining the March from Selma to Montgomery. Then he created #INROADS and challenged Chicago's business leaders to mentor underprivileged youth to aspire to greater economic equity for Black families. Everyone has something to give toward making Dr. King's dream come true. Read his story here, and ask yourself: What can I do?

Thursday: Throwback: The Institute's Leadership Initiatives

To honor Dr. King and his legacy, the Institute closes our events by singing "We Shall Overcome." For more than 20 years, the Institute has used the stories in our book and companion curriculum to inspire young people to overcome obstacles and envision their dreams for their lives, their communities, and the world.
