

SENATOR EDWARD J. MARKEY
MASSACHUSETTS

June 5, 2023

To the Stone Soup Leadership Institute Youth Delegates:

I write today to applaud your participation in the Institute's 19th Sustainability Summit. I am glad for the opportunity to offer my appreciation for the vital work that you are doing to imagine a better, more sustainable future.

The Stone Soup Leadership Institute's Sustainability Summit offers a critical opportunity to explore and confront some of the world's most pressing issues. By being selected for this event, you have displayed exceptional talent and leadership. By participating, you are helping to represent the next generation of leaders. I am confident that you will continue to make our Commonwealth proud.

On this special day I am glad to share my regards and deep admiration for the example you set for your peers. I know I am joined by your family, friends, community, and Commonwealth when I wish you the best of luck in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Edward J. Markey". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of each name being capitalized and prominent.
