

The Stone Soup
Leadership Institute's
National Hispanic Heritage Month
Week of October 16 - 22, 2022

Sunday: Nane Alejandre's Story

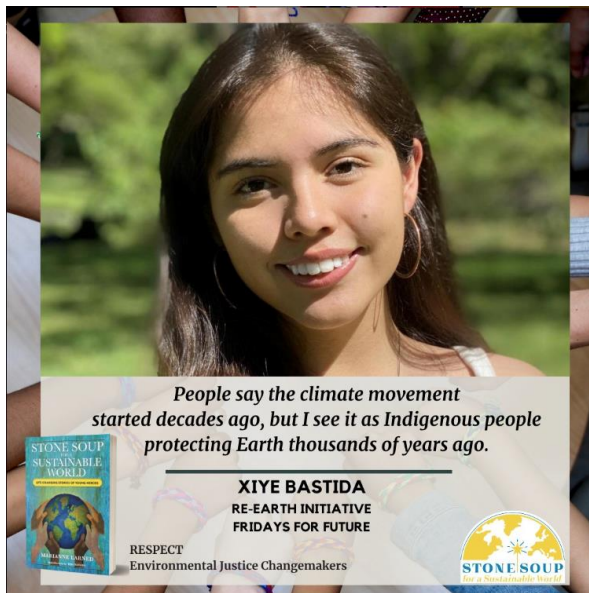

#Nane Alejandre is a national champion for Latino youth. Named by his grandmother: Nane means "Walks in #Peace." His life is dedicated to honoring his people, fighting #racism, #violence and inspiring the next generation of young Latinos to become leaders. READ his inspiring story:

<https://stonesoupleadership.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/story-viva-barrios-unidos.pdf>

@stonesoupleader @santa_cruz_barrios_unidos @nanealejandre

#HispanicHeritage #HispanicHeritageMonth #Hispanic #Latino #Latinos #latinosunidos #EmpoweringLatinos #LatinPower #GrowingUpHispanic #SundayThoughts #StoneSoupLeader #IntergenerationalLegacy #NaneAlejandre #BurriosUnidos #HispanicHeritage #SiSePuede #HerenciaHispana #SantaCruz #Community

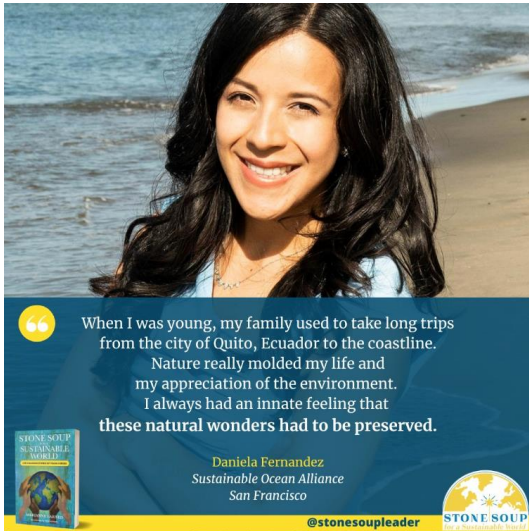

#Leadership #CulturalHealing #Development #CommunityDevelopment

Monday: Xiye Bastida

Xiye Bastida is an Otomi-Toltec climate justice activist, and cofounder of Re-Earth Initiative. She is TIME100Next and served as a UN HLC Ambassador. She is featured in Stone Soup for a Sustainable World and the Stone Soup Educational Curriculum.

#ClimateJustice #ReEarthInitiative #FridaysForFuture
@xivebeara @reearthinitiative

Tuesday: Daniela Fernandez

Daniela Fernandez is Founder & CEO of the Sustainable Ocean Alliance, an international organization that is developing leaders, cultivating ideas, and accelerating solutions for healthy oceans. Her story is featured in the book Stone Soup for a Sustainable World, and in the Stone Soup Educational Curriculum. Learn more here: <http://sustainabilityisfun.net/sustainable-education-toolkit/daniela-fernandez/>

#ClimateEducation #sustainability #Oceans #Innovation

Wednesday- Josue Cruz

Josue Cruz talks about what the Institute means to him and how he models Dr. King's message of Each One Teach One as he inspires the next generation to become leaders of a more sustainable world.

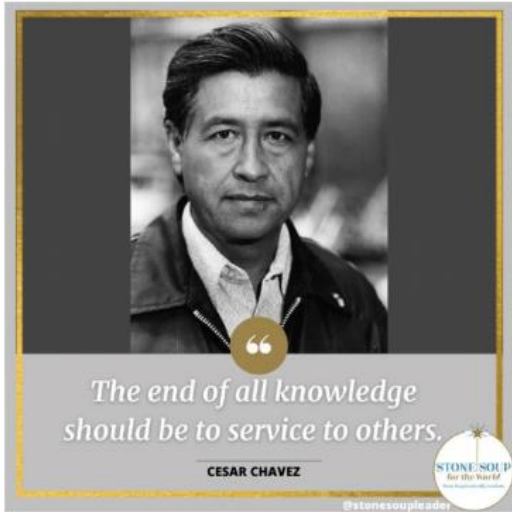

<https://youtu.be/PEPRq5fLhUY>
#EachOneTeachOne #CommunityService #YourBNRep

Thursday: Nicki Becker

Nicki Becker is a leading climate activist and founder of Jovenes Por El Clima, Argentina. She is featured in Stone Soup for a Sustainable World and the Stone Soup Educational Curriculum.

#FridaysForFuture #ClimateAction #ClimateSolutions #EnvironmentalJustice #ClimateEducation

Friday: Cesar Chavez

A true American hero, Cesar Chavez was deeply influenced by Mahatma Gandhi's dedication to non-violence and service. He overcame personal hardships and injustices to rally farm workers and everyday Americans to work together to protect the environment and consumer rights. @ChavezFoundation

@ufwfoundation @ufwupdates @nationalchavezcenter #StoneSoupLeader #SiSePuede #CesarChavez #SoyEsencial #FarmWorkers #UFW #ChavezFoundationCommunity #LegacyOfService #NonViolence #SocialChange #SocialJustice

Saturday: In the wake of Hurricane Maria, teen Salvador Gomez-Colon's brought light and hope to Puerto Rico with his GoFundMe campaign, which raised more than $175K. TIME Magazine named him Teen of the Year for work he did to help restore power to more than 3,500 households. #StoneSoupLeaderFamily #StoneSoupYoungHeroes #ClimateAction #YouthStories #YouthLeaders #ClimateDisaster #ClimateCrisis #RenewableEnergy #SolarLamps

