 #PassingtheTorch

Dear Mr. Gandhi,

Thank you so much for your inspirational talk.. I've thought a lot about what you said, especially regarding being mindful of the messages I send my children and my students.

As a side note, when I went to India 14 years ago to meet my husband's grandparents, I spoke with his grandmother about her life. My favorite story from her was of hearing your grandfather speak when she was a little girl. It was surreal for me to think that my grandmother-in-law was blessed by your grandfather's words, and I am blessed by yours.

Thank you again for your time and your wisdom.

Thursday: Throwback: Yunus Receives Gandhi Award

"You are my hero!" said Dr. Muhammad Yunus, founder of the Grameen Bank when Walter Cronkite, "the most trusted man in America" presented him the Institute's first Mahatma Gandhi award in 2002. Dr. Yunus later went on to win the Nobel Peace Prize in 2006 for his pioneering work with microfinance and microloans through @Grameen Bank. Now, Dr. Yunus is advocating for broader worldwide access to the COVID-19 vaccine. #StoneSoupLeaderFamily

To Arun Gandhi,
The mere fact I was in the same place with a direct descendant of Mahatma Gandhi, even virtually was a remarkable and awe-inspiring experience.

Mahatma Gandhi was a man I grew up learning about.
A man who the world considers to be a hero, a man who has inspired movements for civil rights and freedom across the world, especially in Guyana.

There is even a statue of him in our Promenade Gardens. I am eternally grateful to the Stone Soup family for making this possible. It is an experience I will treasure for the rest of my life.
