2.Monday: Jerome Foster II OneMillionOfUs

Jerome, as an intern mentored by U.S. Congressman John Lewis, had heard about how as a 25-year-old, he had marched with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and created SNCC (Student Nonviolent Organizing Committee). “To be able to learn from this true civil rights icon was amazing.”

5.Thursday: Jerome Summit Video

Jerome Foster II inspired the Institute’s delegates at the 16th Youth Leadership Summit and challenged them:

“Start with empathy and understanding. Read an article about it. Then read five more. Watch documentaries. Reach out to the people involved with the issues you are passionate about. Learn from them. And join the organizations that serve and support these causes.”
