

The Stone Soup Leadership Institute's
 Story of the Week: Ana Sophia Mifsud
 Applied Hope: Building Resilient Communities
 Week of July 11 - July 17, 2021

Sunday: Thrive Global: Applied Hope: Building Resilient Communities

#SundayThoughts: This week's story on Arianna Huffington's Thrive Global showcases Ana Sophia Mifsud, whose two worlds growing up in Miami and Guatemala converged in high school when she learned how renewable energy helps build resilient communities. Now, 25 years old, she works with governments, advocates, and businesses to take action to address global climate change.

Monday: Quote: Ana Sophia Mifsud

#MondayMotivation: After achieving her B.S. in Environmental Systems Engineering from Stanford University, Ana Sophia Mifsud began working on the front lines of climate change in the Island Energy Program at the RMI. In 2017, after Hurricane Maria ravaged Puerto Rico, she partnered with Save The Children to help install microgrids in 10 public schools giving over 4000 students and faculty access to clean, resilient power.
