

Message from your Hawai'i House of Representatives

Aloha Benjamin Zingg, Macartney Biegler, Tania DuPont, Elijah Anakelea-Buckley, and Jacqueline Noborikawa,

It is our pleasure to congratulate you on being selected to represent Hawai'i at the 18th Annual Youth Leadership Summit for Sustainable Development in Martha's Vineyard. You have all shown passion and commitment to earn this honor.

The journey on which you are about to embark will give you the opportunity to work with others from around the world who face similar challenges in sustainability. The experience and training you are about to receive will contribute to building a more sustainable Hawai'i.

The preservation and management of Hawai'i's natural resources is essential to maintaining a quality way of life. With your efforts, Hawai'i can help lead the world in stewardship of land and ocean.

We would also like to commend and thank all the organizations and individuals who are contributing to making this summit happen. This event is possible due to their belief in what you are capable of doing to make our islands a better place.

We are excited for you and have confidence that this summit will offer you opportunities to learn, share and create new experiences for all involved. We wish you all a memorable week and best wishes for the years ahead.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Mark Nakashima".

Mark Nakashima
State Representative
District 1

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Cindy Evans".

Cindy Evans
State Representative
District 7