VEDRAN SMAILOVIC PLAYED CELLO FOR 22 DAYS HONOURING DEAD DURING WAR
IN BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA

“During this terrible time...one man became a symbol of hope...[When] mortar shells hit a group of people waiting to buy bread in a market 22 people were killed and more than 70 were injured...a well-known cellist saw it and was deeply disturbed. The next day he came to the spot...and began to play his cello...and as people gathered around him, there was a sense of healing.
